

Simona Trajkovska, Junior project assistant

str@mcms.mk

+389 2 3065 381

Simona Trajkovska works as a junior project assistant in the Department for Civil Society and Democratization. She was born on the 28th of January 1991 in Skopje. Since 2015, she has been a Master of International Public Law on the thesis "Negotiations as a method of peaceful resolution of international disputes" at the "Iustinianus Primus" Faculty of Law in Skopje. She began her activities in MCIC as a volunteer in September 2015, and has been a regular employee since December 2015. The focus of her interests lies in the democratization of social relations and the role of civil society organizations, rule of law and human rights and liberties.