

Lazar Nedanoski, Consultant/Trainer

lnd@mcms.org.mk

Born on January 3rd 1976 in Ohrid. Graduated at the Faculty of Tourism in Ohrid and presently is enrolled at the postgraduate studies on monetary economics at the Faculty of Economics in Skopje. As of 2007 he is a certified investment advisor by the Securities and Exchange Commission of Republic of Macedonia. His professional experience commenced in 2001 as part of the team which manages the Macedonian Enterprise Development Foundation – organization with total assets in amount of over 10 million EUR, dedicated to development of financial services and entrepreneurship. His expertise is related to financial services, investments, development of small and medium enterprises, entrepreneurship and business planning. He is a co-author of several publications on these topics. His missions include projects led by Resources Global Professionals, MDF Netherlands, World Bank, Babson College and the London School of Business. His knowledge and experiences are enhanced in continuity within famous consultancies and university such as Harvard, University of Bologna, Bled School of Management and OECD Trento Center. He has advanced knowledge of several software tools. He speaks Macedonian (mother tongue) and English language fluently.